

Find The Right Way Forward

Talent Solutions
Right Management
ManpowerGroup

Outplacement services are professional programs provided by employers to support you during a career transition, at no cost to you. These services offer emotional encouragement and practical job search guidance to help you navigate the challenges of leaving a role. With the right tools, resources and expert advice, outplacement can help you move forward with confidence and secure your next opportunity more quickly. Offered by some employers at no cost to exiting employees. Includes:

Real people, real impact

We put human connections at the center of every outplacement solution we deliver. Deeper connections create better outcomes – and we can prove it.

2x faster

Find a new role twice as fast as the BLS average

2 million

Gain access to a database of 2 million job postings daily

45 years

of award-winning career transition excellence

83%

of participants accepted a new role at the same or higher salary.

65%

of our coaches hold advanced degrees, and all are ICF-certified or equivalent

Offered by some employers at no cost to existing employees.
Confirm your eligibility at right.com/outplacement-candidates.